

NIA MONAÉ (PINK MONI)

MULTI AWARD-WINNING RECORDING ARTIST AND ENTREPRENEUR

Nia Monaé, widely recognized as Pink Moni, is a multi-talented artist, award-winning rapper, songwriter, entrepreneur, and cultural powerhouse. With a unique blend of musical mastery, entrepreneurial spirit, and undeniable stage presence, she has cemented her place as a trailblazer in the entertainment industry.

Born with an innate passion for music and creativity, Nia began her journey at the age of 11, where she honed her craft by creating, recording, and mixing her own music. Her dedication and relentless work ethic culminated in her breakout project, 10,000 Hours, which went on to sweep the Wammie Awards (Washington, D.C.'s version of the Grammys) in 2022. She earned prestigious titles such as Best Rap Album, Best Rap Artist, and Best Rap Song, making her a 3X Wammie winner and proving her ability to dominate the rap category. Earlier in her career, she won Best Lyrics at the Independent Music Awards in NYC, showcasing her lyricism and storytelling prowess on a national stage.

Nia Monaé has shared stages with major acts including KeKe Palmer, Billy Porter, Lola Brooke, Rob49, and Sevyn Streeter, captivating audiences with her vibrant energy and undeniable talent. She has been featured across prominent media outlets such as Channel 9 News, 93.9, WUSA9, Big Break Magazine, Shoutout LA, and Shoutout ATL. Notably, Nia performed on the Capital Pride headlining stage, demonstrating her ability to resonate with diverse audiences and connect through her music and message.

In addition to music, Nia Monaé is a visionary entrepreneur. She successfully launched her Somethin' Pink clothing line, a streetwear brand inspired by her rap persona Pink Moni, blending bold designs, graffiti influences, and themes of money and power. Expanding her empire further, Nia authored her first manifestation book, Purposeful Manifestations: Aligning Your Desires with Your Life's True Purpose, offering inspiration to others who dream of aligning their goals with their purpose.

Nia Monaé is not only an artist but a cultural force, a power manifester who believes in speaking dreams into existence. Her journey has been marked by resilience, triumph, and a relentless pursuit of greatness. From the recording studio to the entrepreneurial stage, Nia's ability to inspire and empower others remains at the heart of her brand. With her growing empire encompassing music, fashion, books, and digital platforms, she continues to break boundaries, making her a true powerhouse in every sense of the word.

Key Accomplishments:

- 3X Wammie Award Winner (Best Rap Album, Best Rap Artist, Best Rap Song)
 - Best Lyrics Winner at the Independent Music Awards (NYC)
- Performed alongside KeKe Palmer, Billy Porter, Lola Brooke, Rob49, and more
- Featured on Channel 9 News, 93.9, WUSA9, and numerous media outlets